

A Public Health Approach to Prevention

TIER 1 Primary Prevention

Efforts intended to reach the entire population to reduce the likelihood of harm or violence.

TIER 2 Secondary Prevention

Programs directed at individuals at risk for concerning or threatening behaviors to provide interventions as early as possible.

TIER 3 Tertiary Prevention

Support delivered to individuals at the highest risk for, or already, engaging in or experiencing harmful behavior.

Center for the Study and Prevention of Violence
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER